DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-18 and 61-62 rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-36 of U.S. Patent No. 7,173,981. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both discuss modulating/demodulating and coding/decoding in a layered modulation digital signal system.

In the examiner's opinion, the '981 patent appears to concentrate solely on the receiving/decoding function while this application appears to discuss more of the generation/uplink portion. In either event, both processes are inherently required and cannot be "fully" separated. Also note that satellite systems using spot beams to focus on certain areas on the ground are well known (eg. in at least cellular systems, etc).

Election/Restrictions

The examiner notes that the applicant has elected GROUP 1 from the groups that were previously presented in the first office action (restriction).

Therefore, GROUPS 2 and 3 are non-elected and hereby cancelled.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-18 and 61-62 will be allowed by the examiner when a Terminal Disclaimer is received.

- It is the examiner's opinion that the concepts of independent claim 1 closely parallel the '981 patent and that one skilled in antenna spot beams (eg. for broadcasting, satellite cellular networks, etc.) are well known in the art and can provide a small area of coverage with a specific frequency range of channels, data, etc..
- Closest prior art found is believed to be Markian et al. (EP-1065854) which discloses "hierarchical" modulation. Markian only uses ONE carrier and not two different carriers as disclosed by the applicant's claims/figures.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure is found in the attached PTO-892 form.
